Superb Design and Location

ID: 4816 Price: $ 450,000 USD

Located in the best part of San Antonio with views of the churches, this house is a superb example of the union of traditional materials and motifs with the concepts of modern design. The color scheme is unique and serves to unite the warm hues of brick and ceramic with the more reserved ones of grey and black. Designed specifically to bring in a maximum of natural light, the center of the house is a brilliantly laid out staircase that frames a small central patio. A retractable roof covers the space in case of rain. The ample terrace offers views in all directions as well as the ideal space for social...
